Description	On this day 192nd Birth Anniversary of Savitribai Phule was celebrated by photo puja with auspicious hands of our Principal Dr. S.V.Patil sir. During Photo puja sir said Savitribai Phule was a teacher, Indian social reformer, educationalist, and poet from Maharashtra. Along with her husband, Jyotiba Phule in Maharashtra, she played a vital role in improving women's rights in India. She is considered to be the pioneer of India's feminist movement. Savitribai and Jyotiba together founded one of the early modern Indian girls school in Pune, at Bhidewada in 1848. She strived to abolish discrimination and unfair treatment of people on the basis of caste and gender. However, In the 19th century, Christian missionaries founded some school for girls in India such as Robert May of the London Missionary Society, who was the first person to open a school exclusively for girls in the region of Chinsurah, Bengal, in 1818. American Christian missionaries established some schools in Bombay, Ahemadnagar. The latter girl's schools inspired Jyotiba Phule to establish a girl's school in Poona. All program was successful with the guidance & support from our Principal sir, staff& NSS volunteer students.
